

5/6/21

By Bill Travis

The Ironmen are currently playing every Thursday and, pursuant to its schedule, have reverted to Spring morning tee times beginning at 10:00AM or thereabouts and every fifteen minutes thereafter until all that wish to play have reserved a tee time. No sweeps as yet, but championship points are being awarded. As always, we're paying attention to the new COVID rules regarding masks and social gathering.

This Thursday, 05/06/2021, was another great day for golf; sunny and mild. We had a great turnout and the results are as follows:

1st place was a four-way tie between Al Bruno, Patrick McMordie, Mario Silva, and Bill Travis with net scores of 27;

2nd place went to Rob Boyles with a net 28;

3rd place went to David Cook with a net 29.

There were 0 birdies today:

Closest to the pin:

Not in play today but hopefully soon once the COVID rules have been relaxed.

Deep thoughts:

I don't want to play golf. When I hit a ball, I want someone else to go chase it.

You know, the Oscar I was awarded for The Untouchables is a wonderful thing, but I can honestly say that I'd rather have won the U.S. Open Golf Tournament. Sean Connery, Actor
