

9/30/21

By Bill Travis

The Ironmen are currently playing every Thursday morning at 10:00AM, with a shotgun start. sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin.

This Thursday, 09/30/2021, was an absolutely perfect day to play golf. There were sunny skies and mild temperatures. We had a great turnout and the results are as follows:

1st place went to Patrick McMordie with a net score of 23;

2nd place went to Bill Travis with a net score of 24;

3rd place went to Bob Prichard with a net score of 25.

A net score of 26 was just not good enough today (condolences to Al Bruno and Bob Lapidus).

There were six birdies:

Al Bruno on hole 1; Dave Hathaway on hole 1; Patrick McMordie on hole 2; Bob Prichard on hole 8; Mario Silva on hole 5; and Bill Travis on hole 2.

Closest to the pin:

Al Bruno was closest to the pin on hole 3 with his tee shot coming to rest 9' 10" from the pin.

Deep thoughts:

Golf is played with a number of implements more intricate in shape than those used in any form of recreation except dentistry. E.V. Knox, Magazine editor

If it really made sense to "let the club do the work," you'd just say, "Driver, wedge to the green, one-putt," and walk to the next tee. Thomas Mulligan, Patron saint of do-overs
