

3/31/2022

The Ironmen are currently playing every Thursday afternoon at 2:00PM, with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin. This Thursday, 03/31/2022, was another beautiful, sunny and warm day; just right for some golf. The Par 3 greens had been punched and sanded, therefore my favorite rule, maximum two putts after getting on the green, was in effect. We had a good turnout and welcomed a new member, David Bruce. The results are below.

The results of today's play are as follows:

1st place went to Jim Schlosser with a net score of 22(!);

2nd place there was a two-way tie between Prakash Deshmukh and Jerry Juracich, each with a net score of 24; and 3rd place went to Victor Hong with a net score of 25.

Lowest gross score for the day:

Jim Schlosser and Victor Hong each with a gross score of 30.

There was but one birdie today:

Mike Schwerin on hole 5.

Closest to the pin on hole 5:

Prakash Deshmukh was closest to the pin at a distance of 7'7".

Deep thoughts:

Golf is an awkward set of bodily contortions designed to produce a graceful result. Tommy Armour, Scottish professional golfer who contorted his body pretty well and won the 1931 Open Championship

My swing is so bad, I look like a caveman killing his lunch. Lee Trevino, winner of six major championships: the US Open (twice); The PGA (twice); and the Open Championship (twice)
