

5/19/2022

By Bill Travis

The Ironmen are in morning play, gathering every Thursday morning at 10:00AM with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin. This Thursday, 05/19/2022, we had warm and sunny weather; perfect for some golf. As you might expect with that kind of weather conditions, we had a great turnout and the results are listed below.

The results of today's play are as follows:

1st place there was a two-way tie between Al Bruno and Patrick McMordie each with a net score of 27;

2nd place went to Frank Beltran with a net score of 28; and

3rd place there was a two-way tie between Roger Pyle and Mario Silva, each with a net score of 29.

Lowest gross score for the day:

Al Bruno with a gross score of 28.

There were three birdies today:

Al Bruno had two of them, one on hole 2 and the other on hole 9; and Jim Schlosser on hole 5.

Closest to the pin on hole 3:

Strangely enough, no one landed on the green on hole 3, therefore, there was no award for closest to the pin. We didn't even get the chance to use our new measuring tape.

Deep thoughts:

On the nine-iron: "A hunk of iron perfect for any number of household uses, such as poking a fire or killing a mouse, but so programmed that it will hit a golf ball only on the top half and send it chattering, in line-drive configuration, into the nearest clump of ivy." The great Jim Murray, sportswriter

Some golf poetry: "I made the nine in a 43

Last night, as I lay in bed.

Oh, golf is no trouble at all for me

When I play a round in my head." Ring Lardner, American sports columnist, from "Nocturnal Golf."