The Ironmen are in morning play, gathering every Thursday morning at 10:00AM with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin. This Thursday, 06/16/2022, there were sunny skies and mild temps. It was a little breezy at times, and that made for some interesting shots. We had another great turnout and a new member joined the club: Jim White. Welcome to the club, Jim. Also visiting as a guest of Al Bruno was his brother-in-law, Paul; it was a pleasure to meet Paul. The results are listed below.

The results of today's play are as follows:

1st place went to Bob Pritchard with a net score of 25;

2nd place there was a five-way tie among Victor Hong, Jerry Juracich, Bob Lapidus, Roger Pyle, and Lee Thompson, each with a net score of 26; and 3rd place went to Mike Schwerin with a net score of 27.

Lowest gross score for the day:

Victor Hong and Mike Schwerin each with a gross score of 30.

There were five birdies today:

Mike Schwerin had two of them, one on hole 2 and the other on hole 3; Jerry Juracich on hole 4; Doug Herring on hole 4; and Victor Hong on hole 3.

Closest to the pin on hole 7:

Jerry Juracich at 11' 8" from the pin.

Deep thoughts:

"Ninety percent of the putts that are short don't go in." Yogi Berra, Hall of Fame catcher for the New York Yankees

Golfing Hall of Fame member Sam Snead, who once said to a struggling golf pupil, "Lay off three weeks, then quit," also got into a debate with Ted Williams, baseball Hall of Fame member, about which was an easier game to play, golf or baseball? Williams said, "It is harder to hit a ninety-five mile an hour fast ball, than a golf ball sitting on a tee." Snead replied, "But you don't have to go up into the stands and play your foul balls. I do."
