Deep thoughts:

“A leading difficulty with the average player is that he totally misunderstands what is meant by concentration. He may think he is concentrating hard when he is merely worrying.” – Bobby Jones, influential American amateur golfer, winner of four US Opens, three Open Championships, and five US Amateur Championships. Founder of The Masters.

“Golf’s ultimate moral instruction directs us to find within ourselves a pivotal center of enjoyment: relax into a rhythm that fits the hills and swales, and play the shot at hand – not the last one, or the next one, but the one at your feet, in the poison ivy, where you put it.” – John Updike, American author, poet, and critic
