The Ironmen are in morning play, gathering every Thursday morning at 10:00AM with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin. This Thursday, 09/15/2022, was partly cloudy with very mild temps. It was the third and final day of the Ironmen three day tournament. We had a great turnout and the final tournament results are listed below.

Flight 1

1st place:

Al Bruno was our winner with a total net score after three rounds of 84.

2nd place:

Dave Hathaway and Doug Herring tied with a total net score after three rounds of 85, but Dave Hathaway won the second tiebreaker to finish in 2nd place;

3rd place:

Doug Herring with a total net score after three rounds of 85.

Flight 2

First place:

Patrick McMordie was our winner with a total net score after three rounds of 76;

2nd place:

Bob Pritchard, with a total net score after three rounds of 77;

3rd place:

Lee Thompson, with a total net score after three rounds of 79.

Lowest Gross Score:

Al Bruno with a gross score of 28.

There were four birdies:

Lee Thompson had two of them, on hole 4 and hole 9; Sang Nam on hole 2; and Doug Herring on hole 3.

Closest to the Pin on Hole 5:

Lee Thompson at 3'8" from the pin, just inside Al Bruno by 2" at 3'10".

Deep thoughts:

Three golf clubs walk into a bar; the Putter ordered a beer. The Pitching Wedge ordered a gin and tonic. The bartender asked the third club if he wanted anything. He replied, "No thanks, I'm the driver." (Hat Tip to Lee Thompson)

The golf ball has no sense at all, which is why it has to be given stern lectures constantly, especially during the act of putting. Dan Jenkins, sportswriter and author
