The Ironmen are now in afternoon play currently gathering every Thursday afternoon at 1:00PM with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin.

On February 9th, twelve Ironmen played on an unseasonably warm day.

Sang Nam won First Place and Low Gross; way to go Sang!

There were 3 players who scored net 30s for third place: Al Bruno, Bob Lapidus & Bob Prichard.

There were also 3 players who scored net 29s for second place: Prakash Deshmukh, Roger Pyle & Bill Travis.

First place went to Sang Nam with a net 27.

Closest to the flag was won by Mario Silva on hole 2 at 6 feet 4 inches.

The greens were fast and challenging, resulting in only one birdie for the second week in a row, which was won by Roger Pyle on hole 2.

Low gross went to Sang Nam with a 3 over par 30.

Deep thoughts:

"Watching Phil Mickelson play golf is like watching a drunk chasing a balloon near the edge of a cliff". David Feherty, former golf professional, and current golf broadcaster

"Thinking instead of acting is the number one golf disease". Sam Snead, winner of three Masters, three PGA Championships, and the US Open
