The Ironmen are now in afternoon play currently gathering every Thursday afternoon at 1:00PM with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin.

On Thursday, March 23, 2023, it was a crisp spring day and only eight of us showed up to play, so the only awards were a fun round of golf and birdies.

Because there were fewer than ten players there were no rewards for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places, however those who achieved those auspicious accomplishments were: third place went to Bob Lapidus with a net 30, second place was a three-way tie between Al Bruno, Jerry Juracich and Lee Thompson with net 29s, and first place went to Roger Pyle with a net 27.

The only birdie was a long put from off the green by Lee Thompson.

Al Bruno got low gross with a 3 over par 30.

So, Al Bruno and Lee Thompson shared golfer of the day honors: Al with his low gross and second place finish, and Lee Thompson with his birdie and second place finish. Way to go Al and Lee!

The Ironmen 9 hole, par 3 group would love to add new members. We are a very sociable group, and don't put much emphasis on being great golfers. And, the first round is on us. Just call Jerry Juracich at 408-440-8283.

Deep Thoughts:

Because golf exposes the flaws of the human swing, a basically simple maneuver, it causes more self-torture than any game short of Russian roulette. Grantland Rice, sportswriter

If I've got a swing, I've got a shot. Bubba Watson, two-time winner of The Masters
