

4/6/2023

By Bill Travis and Jerry Juracich

The Ironmen have now begun their morning play, gathering every Thursday morning at 10:00AM with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin.

Thursday, 4/06/2023, was sunny and warm, a great day for some golf. We were pleased to announce and to welcome a new member, Jay Deimling.

Fifteen Ironmen played on freshly aerated and sanded greens, so the two-putt rule was in effect, hence the unusually low scores.

Third place was shared by Prakash Deshmukh, Doug Herring and Lee Thompson with net 26s. Second place went to Jerry Juracich with a net 24. And, First Place was shared by Bob Lapidus and Bill Travis with net 22s.

The day's only birdie was sunk by Prakash Deshmukh on hole 4.

Closest to the flag on hole 7 was won by Victor Hong at 9 feet 7 inches.

Low gross of 30 was shared by three golfers: Doug Herring, Sang Nam and Bill Travis.

Golfer of the day recognition was shared by: Bill Travis with a 1st place finish and low gross, Doug Herring with a 3rd place finish and a low gross, and Prakash Deshmukh with a 3rd place finish and a birdie.

The Ironmen 9 hole, par 3 group would love to add new members. We are a very sociable group, and play basically pressure-free golf. And, the first round is on us. Just call Jerry Juracich at 408-440-8283.

Deep Thoughts:

On being asked before the final round what he needed to shoot to win the tournament – "the rest of the field." Roger Maltbie, PGA Tour & TV Commentator

My favorite shots are the practice swing and the conceded putt. The rest can never be mastered. – Lord Robertson of Port Ellen, UK Politician
