The Ironmen are currently in morning play, gathering every Thursday morning at 10:00AM with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin.

Thursday, 10/05/2023, was sunny and warm, another nice day for some golf. Beginning on October first, a new golf year started for the Ironmen. Happy Ironmen New Year to all. We had a new member join, Arki Galicki. Welcome Arki. The greens were freshly aerated and sanded so the two putt rule was in effect; this resulted in slightly lower scores than usual.

Fourteen 14 Ironmen played.

Third Place was a three-way tie between Prakash Deshmukh, Bob Lapidus, and Bill Travis with net 25s; Second Place went to Roger Pyle with a net 22; and Jerry Juracich won First Place with a net 21.

There were five Birdies: one each by David Cook on hole 8; Prakash Deshmukh on hole 3; Dave Hathaway on hole 1; Jerry Juracich on hole 7; and Sang Nam on hole 7.

David Hathaway won Closest to the Flag on hole 5 at 3 feet, 2 inches.

Low Gross was a four-way tie between David Hathaway, Victor Hong, Jerry Juracich, and Sang Nam with 29s.

Golfer of the Day honors were shared by David Hathaway with low gross, a birdie, and closest to the flag, and Jerry Juracich with low gross, first place, and a birdie. Way to go guys!

The Ironmen 9 hole, par 3 group would love to add new members. We are a very sociable group, and play basically pressure-free golf. And the first round is on us. Just call Jerry Juracich at 408-440-8283.

Deep Thoughts:

I know how to choke. Given even a splinter-thin opportunity to let my side down, and destroy my own score, I will seize it. Not only does ice water not run through my veins, but what runs there has a boiling point lower than body temperature. John Updike, American author and two-time winner of the Pulitzer Prize.
