

7/6/2023

By Bill Travis and Jerry Juracich

The Ironmen are currently in morning play, gathering every Thursday morning at 10:00AM with a shotgun start, sweeps, birdie pool, and closest to the pin.

Thursday, 7/6/2023, was partly cloudy/partly sunny and mild. Just right for some golf. The results are as follows:

Fourteen Ironmen played.

First Place: There was a four-way tie between Chuck Benjamin, Al Bruno, David Hathaway, and Victor Hong, each with a net score of 29;

Second Place: there was a three-way tie between Walter Lucas, Sang Nam, and Roger Pyle, each with a net score of 31;

Third Place: there was a three-way tie between David Cook, Prakash Deshmukh, and Jim White, each with a net score of 32.

Birdies: there was one birdie by David Hathaway on hole 5.

Closest to the Flag:

Doug Herring on hole 2 at 13 feet 1 inch.

Low Gross: Al Bruno won low gross with a score of 30.

Golfer of the Day recognition was shared by: Al Bruno with a first-place finish and low gross, and David Hathaway also with a first-place finish and the only birdie.

The Ironmen 9 hole, par 3 group would love to add new members. We are a very sociable group, and play basically pressure-free golf. And, the first round is on us. Just call Jerry Juracich at 408-440-8283.

Deep Thoughts:

"It is nothing new or original to say that golf is played one stroke at a time. But it took me many years to realize it." Bobby Jones, winner of four US Opens, five US Amateur Championships, three British Opens, and founder of the Masters

"Sometimes the game of golf is just too difficult to endure with a golf club in your hands." Bobby Jones
